“Who Are You?”
“Put Off...Put On...PIVOT!!”

- (1) Looking at the first two sections of the passage from Sunday (Colossians 3.5-9), if you were rewriting this passage to apply to a 2018 context, what would you include in this list of things to “put off”?
- (2) How might the passage from Sunday (Colossians 3:5-11, especially 10-11) be encouraging to you in the daily struggle against sin and the pursuit of holiness?
- (3) Have you ever grown weary in the struggle against temptation and sin? What about it becomes so tiresome and difficult?
- (4) Is this passage of scripture meant for an individual, a community, or both? Explain.
- (5) Is this struggle an individual one, or one that requires us to stay actively connected to the Body of Christ?
- (6) In Sunday’s sermon, a statement was made that said, “It is impossible to truly have a successful relationship with God in isolation. We can’t express our faith outside of our involvement in the community of faith.” Do you agree with this statement? Why or why not?
